NO. 90

HUBBLE.

The mules of M. B. Eubanks, bought some time back, were taken Tuesday. The personal property of the late Mrs. Fannie Ball will be sold Saturday, Jan. 7, 1905.

Mr. and Mrs. James Davis have moved to the McGuire farm, which they recently bought.

Elder F. M. Tindler will fill his appointment at the Christian church on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. George White and Miss Katie Hayes were quietly married in Lancaster Saturday afternoon.

Joe Rice accidentally shot Jas. Shackelford while hunting Xmas day. We are glad to state that he is not dangerously wounded.

Xmas in this city has been very quiet. The people of a rowdy nature have long ago sought other climes and peace and happiness reign supreme.

L. G. Hubble sold three 1,000-pound cattle to Luther Gibbs at $1 and $1 a head. T. C. and Robert Rankin are arranging to ship their mules in a few days. J. C. Robinson, H. C. Walter and Luce Bros. sold some fat hogs to J. C. Johnson at 4c.

S. M. Spoonamore and family have taken possession of their home recently vacated by John Robinson, who has moved to the Harlan place on the Danville pike. Harvey McBeath is visiting relatives in Somerset. We are glad to report that J. C. Eubanks is convalescing.

Dock Weaver, of State College, is with his parents here. Mr. Wm. McKeechie, of Monticello, is the guest of his brother, James McKeechie. Miss Florence Hammond, of Hamilton College, is with her parents during the holidays. Miss Ethel Carman is home from Lexington, where she has been attending the Conservatory of Music. Mrs. E. B. Miller has gone to Indiana to visit her son, Frank.

RECTOR OF ST. LUKES.

Ashburnham, Ontario. Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

ASHBURNHAM, ONT., April 18, 1903.—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your cough remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your cough remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a God-sent remedy. E. A. Langfeldt, M. A., Rector St. Luke's Church. To Chamberlain Medicine Co. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

SOMERSET.

The Senior Class of the High School was entertained by the Misses Hill. A most enjoyable time is reported.

Frank Forth is spending the holidays with his parents in Campbellsville. Miss Grace Waddle spent several days in Cincinnati. Misses Stella Waddle, Maude Girdler, Messrs. John Thatcher and Claude Waddle are at home from college for the holidays.

The entertainment given by the Senior Class of the High School Friday evening was well attended and greatly enjoyed. The organization of the alumni association was the most important event of the evening and was a great surprise to those present. Officers of the association were elected and other important business carried out.

The Central Ky. Real Estate Exchange & Title Co. has for sale two tracts of land lying in the Southern end of Lincoln county, near Southern railway. One tract consists of 38 acres, the other five acres. The owner of this property lives at a distance and we are instructed to sell it privately. It must go. The best bid gets it. For further particulars see or address L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

HUSTONVILLE.

George Routt was presented by his wife with a ten-pound boy for a Christmas gift.

W. C. Cowan had a finger badly bitten by a hog that became ferocious from having a ring punched through his snout.

Say, have you seen Buck Weatherford since he used that last bottle of "lightning hair grower"? It's wonderful!

It's just like finding money to attend the great clearance sale at The Charles Wheeler Emporium, beginning January 5th.

About 20 couples attended the hop at Alcorn's Opera House last Wednesday night and tripped the light fantastic until an early hour.

Messrs. F. M. Yowell and Brent Barnett are on the sick list. Outside of the two above named, our physicians say it is distressingly healthy.

For Sale or Rent Cheap—A good dwelling with five rooms and kitchen; large, fertile garden, on East Main st. Apply at once to W. R. Williams.

The Newtonia Hotel is putting an excellent class of furniture throughout their new building and every feature looking toward the comfort of their guests is being arranged.

The large and well-assorted stock of goods of The J. G. Weatherford Co. has been moved into their new quarters on the corner in the Hotel Weatherford and is a thing of beauty, unsurpassed in the county, and must be seen to be appreciated.

W. C. Greenlog and son, Neal, of Lexington, were among our numerous holiday visitors that greatly admired the many splendid buildings erected here during the past summer. S. D. Yowell and family have moved to the Logan residence.

Wallace Hall, of Corbin, who has been at home on the sick list, caused from an injured foot, returned Tuesday upon telegraphic advice that his presence was necessary for the good of the service. The position Wallace holds is quite complicated.

At Moreland Saturday night some howling miscreant shot into the depot and later threw a rock through the window of the southbound passenger, No. 3. All such cattle as these should be rounded up and walked to the place they are trying to break into at Frackfort and lead a trade.

At a meeting of the directors of the Beaver Creek Oil and Gas Co. a dividend was declared of 15 per cent. and checks for same will be forwarded. This makes 40 per cent. this company has paid its stockholders in the past four months, besides paying all running expenses and carrying a snug sum to the surplus fund for further developments.

W. G. Cowan and E. McCormack, our hustling live stock traders, were the recipients of two handsome walking canes from Tom Green, of Cincinnati. Lee Riker, of Harrodsburg, spent three or four days in delightful and successful bird hunting with Crit Riffe last week. Horace Bohon and several of his many friends are home for the holidays. Miss Elina Lipps is home from Harrodsburg.

The plans in blue print of the new graded school building will be ready for inspection by the board of education next week and will doubtless receive their endorsement. From the plans already outlined, the building will be much better arranged than the present one; more comfortable and cost about $2,000 less, all of which to board of good business men are attractive features and will doubtless be adopted by them. By the way, we are to have some students next week from your city and vicinity.

The audience at the Christmas tree at the Christian church filled the house and the songs by the little folks deserve special mention. Santa Claus was costumed after the fashion of the proverbial Santa and displayed the adept as a Grand Master in his profession and made glad the hearts of hundreds, some of whom were large children. Joy and happiness was unalloyed as the hearts of the coming generation found expression in their bright faces, and no dread of the future darkened the sunny hours for them.

NEWS NOTES.

Facing bankruptcy because of the tremendous slump in cotton, the farmers and merchants of Georgia and other Southern States are taking a heroic measure to prevent a further fall and to advance the price of the staple. This measure is no less than burning a portion of the cotton which has not been marketed. It is proposed that 2,000,000 bales be destroyed, each State to burn its pro rata.

Revolution Imminent.

A sure sign of approaching revolt and serious trouble in your system is nervousness, sleeplessness, or stomach upsets. Electric Bitters will quickly dismember the troublesome causes. It never fails to tone the stomach, regulate the kidneys and bowels, stimulate the liver and clarify the blood. Run down systems benefited particularly, and all the usual attending aches vanish under its searching and thorough effectiveness. Electric Bitters is only 50c. and that is returned if it don't give perfect satisfaction. Guaranteed by Penny, druggist.

There are few journalists in Kentucky who are as forcible with the pen as Mr. W. P. Wolton, and it is to be hoped that his retirement from the tripod will be of short duration.—Jesse mine Journal.

When you want a pleasant purgative try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no nausea, griping or otherwise disagreeable effect. For sale by all druggists.

Again that rustling sound was heard, As old 1904 grew brief; 'Twas caused by mankind everywhere Turning that new leaf.

O. G. HARRISON.

Who will be cashier of the McKinney Deposit Bank, which will open its doors for business Monday, next. Mr. Harrison is from Williamstown and is an experienced banker. A cordial invitation is extended to one and all to be present at the bank's opening.

Mr. Bazley is an old Stanford boy and his legion of friends here extend hearty congratulations in advance of the happy event.

Head About to Burst From Severe Bilious Attack.

"I had a severe bilious attack and felt like my head was about to burst when I got hold of a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. I took a dose of them after supper and the next day felt like a new man and have been feeling happy ever since," says Mr. J. W. Smith, of Juliet, Texas. For biliousness, stomach troubles and constipation, these tablets have no equal. Price 25 cents. For sale by all druggists.

"Don't understand the meaning of half? Now, suppose I gave you this apple and your little brother was to cut it into equal parts and take one of them, what would he have?" "A smash in the face!"—Houston Post.

A Costly Mistake.

Blunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills for Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Headache, Liver or Bowel troubles. They are gentle yet thorough. 25c. at Penny's drug store.

RAINCOATS.

A raincoat does two things you want done. Keeps you and itself dry in the rain; and if it is one of ours, it keeps you well-dressed. All Raincoats won't do these things for you. To get a good Raincoat, pay enough; if you come to us you won't pay too much.

THE GLOBE

Singing the Praises To the Apple Butter.

Like GRANDMA used to make. You have often wished you could get some Apple Butter which would taste like it used to when Grandma made it. Possibly her own wouldn't taste now just as it did in those days, down on the farm, but we have just received some which seems to us just like the good old kind. It is Heinz Apple Butter—one of the 87 varieties—made as those products all are, pure, clean and good. We don't care to say more about it. We would rather you would taste it and judge for yourself. Heinz Apple Butter comes in stone crocks, convenient sizes.

To the Convalescent:--

We hold out a helping hand to the sick who are slowly creeping back to health. Vinol hastens recovery after any severe sickness. After typhoid, pneumonia or la grippe, Vinol quickly restores strength, creates an appetite for nourishing food, makes rich, red blood, and, unlike old-fashioned Cod Liver Oil and Emulsions, does not upset the stomach. It tastes good. Try it on our guarantee.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON

THE old year of 1904 has almost run its course and before this paper is published again it will be numbered with the things that were. Aside from the drouth the year has been a good one and many of us will part with it with regret. Crops have been fairly good, prices satisfactory and in most cases our labors have been bountifully rewarded. There have been calamities of various kinds, and many of them serious ones, but who can recall a year without them? Friends and relatives of many of us have been called hence but such sorrows have been known since the beginning of time. Everything considered 1904 has dealt gently with mankind in general and has given to him no more troubles and heartaches than many of its predecessors. Then why should we not regret to see the old year go? It is but another milestone of the journey to the grave and why should we wish to be ushered into eternity more rapidly? Certainly we have no such desire and many of us will bid farewell to the parting year with sadness and drop a tear as it passes out of existence. From a personal standpoint 1904 has given us no reason to feel otherwise than good to it. We have done reasonably well and we hereby return thanks to Him who gave us the good year and to our liberal patrons who gave us work. We have tried to serve our constituents well and if we have failed to do so the error has been with the head and not the heart. It is hard to please all and no doubt the INTERIOR JOURNAL has not been run to suit all of its thousands of readers, but of course we can't help that. It has not been our intention to do a soul, it matters not how lowly he is, an injustice in these columns and we shall never knowingly do so, but during 1905 we promise to print the news as we see it, it matters not whose ox is gored. So if you don't want your evil deeds exposed during the year to come you had better leave them undone. With malice to ward none, but on the contrary a good feeling for everybody, we take up our duties for the year soon to make its appearance with a light heart and promise to make the I. J. a more popular home paper than it has been since its creator left it in his present feeble hands.

SOME of the envious contemporaries, the Middlesboro News for one, are saying that Mr. W. P. Walton got tired of playing a losing game with the Lexington Democrat and was anxious to quit. We happen to know that the reverse is true. Mr. Walton had gotten the Democrat on Easy street and was making money. The fact that he got nearly three times as much for the paper as it cost him at public auction, shows how he had built it up and how it was regarded by its rival for the morning field. We suppose it makes little difference with Mr. Walton whether some people think he had to sell or not. We merely print this to give the facts in the matter.

THE Louisville papers say no man in that city received more presents and attention on Christmas day than did Caleb Powers, who has been thrice convicted for complicity in the assassination of Gov. Goebel. Shame on such people!

THE president in a letter to a Confederate veterans' camp indicates that he has a great affection for the Southern people, says a Washington dispatch. The woodchuck's remark just before taking its flight is truly in order.

A MINNESOTA man received a coffin for a Christmas gift. He put it away saying that he supposed it would come in handy some day.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

POSSIBLY the dullest Christmas in the recollection of the oldest inhabitant is almost at an end. With the exception of a hop and a party or so even the young folks have done nothing out of the ordinary.

THE directors of the First National Bank at their meeting on Thursday, declared a semi-annual dividend of three per cent, payable Jan. 1st, carried 10 per cent.—$5,000—to the surplus fund, paid all taxes and expenses and had about $800 left as undivided profits.

JUMBO—C. R. Brawner has moved to Burgin and L. Johnson has moved to the Brawner farm. Wm. Walls has moved to Lancaster. Tom Denham has been confined to his bed for six weeks with rheumatism. Silas Carrier and wife spent Christmas with J. P. Denham and family.

KIND WORDS—"Wife and I will leave Friday for Way, Miss., where you will please send my paper. I could not spend the winter from home without the INTERIOR JOURNAL to keep me posted. Wishing you much success, I remain your friend, C. T. Bohon, Hustonville." "I enclose you herewith my 34th year's subscription to the INTERIOR JOURNAL. May God bless the paper, the editor and all my old Lincoln county relatives and friends. I wish you one and all a merry Christmas and a happy, prosperous New Year. Fraternally, M. G. Cash, Petersburg, Texas."

ALL clocks at your price before leaving. Severance & Son.

THE Lincoln County National Bank declared a 3 per cent. dividend this morning and carried a good sum to undivided profits. The Hustonville Bank will declare a 5 per cent. and Crab Orchard Bank a 3 per cent. dividend.

JUDGE TRIBBLE'S court has been a busy one for several days. Frank Richards caught a $20 fine for drunkenness, Sam Helm, Will Baughman and Mack Bright, $5 each for the same offense, while Tom Baughman was mulcted to the tune of $35 for shooting on the street.

FOX—Just as Christmas day came to the light of Mrs. Montie Fox, of Danville, ceased to burn, for after a long illness the spirit of that good wife and tender mother returned to the God who gave it. She was a daughter of Mr. Henry Baughman, deceased, and was reared in Stanford, where she was universally loved. She was a sister of Messrs. J. W. Baughman of this place, and H. C. Baughman, of the West End, and Messdames Newman and George Birk, of Owensboro, and they as well as the bereaved husband and motherless children have great sympathy in this dark hour. Mrs. Fox had long been a member of the Christian church and having lived a consecrated life, death had no fears for her. After funeral services by Dr. E. M. Green the burial took place in Bellevue Cemetery, Danville.

THE Christmas tree at Hebron Methodist church was a success in every feature. A prettier tree was never seen in a country church. A large crowd attended and many nice and useful presents were exchanged. Every regular attendant of the Sunday school was remembered by Messdames J. H. Tucker and A. C. Dunn. Before the distribution of the presents the crowd was entertained for an hour by the pupils of Miss Isabel Rose. Recitations and dialogues were recited by Misses Margaret, Rene and Ebbie Coffey and Anna Chancellor, Nell Newland, Lillie and Carrie Wade, Clara Burns and Messrs. Chappell, Adams, Atwood, Dillon, Paul and Eddie Wade. Our superintendent, Mr. Sam Holtzclaw, is a wide-awake church worker and every one is pleased with the progress he has made. Mr. Henry Newland deserves credit for going three miles to the knobs to get a choice cedar tree when the church yard was full of just such evergreens.

PREACHERSVILLE.

Rev R. F. Jordan fell and severely sprained his ankle. It was thought at first to have been broken.

W. D. Elmore went to the mountains with a car-load of hogs, which he will sell J. D. Horton and Sam Ballard have each completed a new barn. The farmers say this is fine weather on wheat.

Mencef Elmore is a born mechanic, easily making anything he needs. During the recent drouth he constructed a water main from a never-falling spring near his house, which has furnished an abundant supply of water for domestic purposes and fully supplies the farm.

The Dirk Warner Lodge No. 561 of Masons, at this place, met the 27th and elected the following officers: J. F. Holtzclaw, master; W. H. Brown, senior deacon; J. M. Cress, junior deacon; W. C. Cummins, secretary; W. H. Cummins, treasurer; T. F. Gross, senior warden; D. F. Thompson, junior warden; W. G. Cummins, tyler.

The Preachersville school closed on Friday. The children received a bountiful supply of candy and bananas. The teacher, Miss Lizzie Pettus, deserves special compliments for having taught the best school we have had for some time. Now that school is out and the children are out of the way, why will it not be a good time for the trustees to have the school house painted, the fence repaired and get ready for the Spring term?

Miss Anna Cram, of Colorado, who is attending Georgetown College, is spending the holidays with Misses Fannie and Ella Thompson. Misses Newland, of Cedar Creek, were visiting Misses Cummins Mr. J. T. Bingham and wife entertained a storm party Monday evening. J. D. Horton is visiting relatives in Jessamine. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cress have returned from a visit to relatives in Rockcastle. Oliver Naylor, of Illinois, is with his parents. Owen Duval has returned from Madison Wm Pettus and John Cummins, of Crab Orchard and Tyrore, respectively, spent Christmas with homefolks here.

Some time Friday night safe-blowers made a fruitless attempt to blow the safe in W. H. Cummins' store. They gained an entrance by picking the lock or by using a duplicate key. They pulled off a ring of the inside safe door and inserted nitro glycerine through the opening. It is known that the burglars had made a shot, as some of the soap used to cement around the door was blown into the walls of the building. Next morning word was telephoned to Mulligan, of Wilmore, who came with his bloodhounds at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and put the dogs on the trail, which was followed to where the crackmen had their horses or buggy standing. Some believe the robbers were in an automobile. It is thought to have been the work of novices. No clue.

POLITICAL.

Chauncey M. Depew will succeed himself as Senator from New York.

Judge R. L. Stout, of Woodford, was appointed to succeed Judge Cantrill.

The President has appointed W. Hall Harris to be postmaster at Baltimore.

President Roosevelt has recommended drastic measures for abating the smoke nuisance in Washington.

A petition is being extensively circulated and signed urging President Roosevelt to appoint John W. Yerkes to a place in the Cabinet.

The resignation of Judge James E. Cantrill, as circuit judge of the 14th judicial district, has been accepted by Gov. Beckham, to take effect Saturday.

For the sixth time Clarence E. Woods, of Richmond, was elected Editor and Grand Recorder by the National convention of the Sigma Nu Society, at New Orleans.

Here and There.

Jeff Skaggs shot and killed John Lee in Green county.

A Chicago man is charged with drenching seven horses with kerosene and applying a match.

The sale of personality of L. C. Bosley on Wednesday was well attended, considering the weather, and prices realized were satisfactory. Nine hundred-pound cattle brought $3.50, 750-pound cattle $3.25, aged work mules $7.50 to $8.00, work horses $7.50 to $8.40, corn $2.20, milk cows $2.10 to $4.00, weanling calves $3.50; farming implements sold for fair prices.

THE PASSING OF 1904

Marks the close of the best year of our business. We desire to thank all who have helped to make it such and, for 1905, we ask a continuance of your patronage. For the New Year we promise still better service and bigger VALUES when possible. These are days of progress, and we aim to keep always abreast of the times. When new styles appear, we get them. When bigger VALUES can be had, we give our customers the full benefit of them. Value giving with us is neither occasional nor spasmodic; it's the rule of our establishment, and those who buy of us regularly do so to their satisfaction and profit.

We think that our METHODS and our MERCHANDISE will please everybody. If you are not already one, let us number you among our regular customers for 1905.

Before some of the readers of the INTERIOR JOURNAL see this advertisement the year 1904 will be gone. We want to say right here before we get too deep into the business affairs of 1905 that we appreciate every cent of money you have spent with us, and will show it in a substantial way by giving you more goods for ONE HUNDRED CENTS than any other store in Central Kentucky.

We have been asked why this store does so many things for its customers that other stores forget to do. It is just this. No matter how fine our store-house, how large our stock or how perfect our system if we did not have buyers we could not do much business. Therefore there is nothing consistent with good business principles that we would do for you. If you are a customer continue, if you are not one be one this year, 1905.

Our motto is, "go forward." There is no standing still in the business affairs of life and we are not satisfied with what we have done nor are we expecting you to patronize us for what we have done, but it is what we can do and will do for you the coming year. We propose to make some changes and to add many other features that will make for the comfort and conveniences of our patrons. Trade with us this year, 1905.

THE Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will meet with Mrs. J. K. VanArsdale at 2 P. M. Saturday, Jan. 7th.

MRS. J. F. LEAR'S millinery store at Lancaster burned. The stock of the Lancaster Grocery Co. was destroyed with a loss of $1,500.

ROBERT L. LEWIS' horse ran away the other day and broke the top off of his buggy. Fortunately nobody was in the vehicle at the time.

DON'T forget that the 20 per cent. discount on gilt clocks, diamond goods and toilet articles ends on Saturday night, Dec. 31. W. H. Mueller.

WHILE hunting on Mr. Wm. H. Shanks' farm, James and Thos. Greer killed an immense red fox. The youthful hunters fired six times at it before they brought him down.

UNLESS you settle with us this afternoon or to-morrow you will let the New Year catch you behind on your home paper. For goodness sake don't let such a calamity befall you!

WHILE helping move a press for this office, Henry Evans, colored, had a bone of his foot broken. He is a hard-working man and we are sorry that the injury will lay him up for a few days.

BOUGHT OUT - Buck Bros., of Lancaster, have bought the coal and feed business of Elmer Denham. Mr. J. B. Buck will continue to run the business of Mr. Northcutt, and Mr. B. P. Buck will run the coal business.

DICK ROUT, a well-known darkey, died Wednesday night.

HAVE your eyes tested for glasses before the Christmas rush. Satisfaction guaranteed. Dr. W. N. Craig.

B. P. JONES, of the firm of Riffe & Jones, McKinney produce men, was married Tuesday night to Laura Reynolds.

THE hop Monday night was a most enjoyable affair. A number of belles and beaux of Stanford and elsewhere were present and tripped the light fantastic till the wee sma' hours.

THE remains of Mrs. Susan Purcell, of Garrard, were brought through here Sunday on their way to Lebanon for interment. Mrs. Purcell died at her home on Sugar Creek of a complication of troubles, aged 69.

THE announcement in the last issue that the Daughters of the Confederacy would meet with Mrs. J. W. Alcorn Tuesday afternoon was a mistake. The Chapter will meet the last Tuesday in January with Mrs. W. A. Tribble.

THE Christmas cards sent out by Cummins & McClary are the prettiest and handsomest we have seen. This up-to-date firm never misses an opportunity of showing its appreciation of the liberal patronage it is receiving.

IN the Ball will case, Judge James P. Bailey decided that Mrs. Aaron Ball was of sound mind when she disposed of her property, giving a good portion of it to Mr. J. A. Hammond and wife, of Hubble, and the instrument was admitted to probate. Attorneys for the Ball heirs say that they will take the case to the circuit court.

WILLIAMS - Mr. Robt L. Williams, who suffered another stroke of paralysis Friday, died that night. He is survived by a wife, who was a Miss Neal, and one child. The burial occurred in Hustonville cemetery at 10 A. M. Sunday and was in charge of the Masons. Mr. Williams came to the West End from Casey some years ago and was making Lincoln a most excellent citizen. He was about 45 years old.

THE reception given by Mrs. L. E. Cook Wednesday afternoon was largely attended and heartily enjoyed. The handsome home was beautifully decorated with holly and mistletoe and the scene presented was a most happy one. Delightful refreshments were served. Mesdames J. W. Hagin and M. C. Williams received and Mesdames Alice Cloyd, W. C. Shanks and Miss Anna Cook charmingly entertained.

IN answer to our query if he would be an applicant for postmaster again, Postmaster James C. Florence said he would be and if we mistake not a large majority of the patrons of the Stanford office hope he will be the successful one. We do not know what backing the present incumbent has, for republicans don't let us on to their secrets, but we do know that Mr. Florence has made a most excellent official and is as clever a man as ever sold a stamp. Teddy has said that he does not like third-terms but that may have been done for effect. Any way Mr. Florence's many friends here hope it was and are willing to wager that the assertion will cut no ice in his case.

JUST as we were about to succeed in having the name of Spraggins' Well changed to Welch's Well, Mr. W. H. Higgins and others having seconded our motion to do so, the Somerset Journal, which thinks it can run the affairs of Lincoln county as well as those of Pulaski, comes forward with this protest and we are at a loss to know what step to take next: "Go slow, Eddie. The name Spraggins is not very euphonious, but it is historical. Among the first public records of your county that name is found prominent. The well referred to was the private property of the last of the line of Spraggins, kept up for many years at his personal expense, and kept free to the public at all times. In seasons of severe drouth, when others of more euphonious names locked their wells, Spraggins' Well supplied the dependant families throughout the village with the coldest, purest water in the county; and Spraggins enforced economy of water in his own family in order to eke out the supply to the needy. Further, many a time, when children too weak to handle the pump were sent for water, he kept his servants under orders to draw the water and carry it home for them."

BIG Remnant Sale now on - silks, woollens, cotton goods. Severance & Son.

FOR RENT - The brick house on Lancaster Street occupied by J. W. Rout. Possession given Jan. 1st P. P. Nunnellely.

BAKER WALLS tells us that he will have charge of the Daugherty blacksmith shop after Jan. 1 and that he will have an expert blacksmith to do the work.

A. M. BALLARD, brother of Robert Y. Ballard, of Waynesburg, was killed at Peru, Ind., in a wreck on the Wabash Railroad. He was an engineer on that road. The remains were brought to this county for interment. A wife, who was a Miss Camden, and one child survive him. W. A. Hammond and wife and the pastor of his church, Rev. Thompson, of Peru, accompanied the body. The former is Chief of B. L. E. 548 of which Mr. Ballard was an honored member. Mr. Ballard was an officer in F. and A. M. also and a member of his church choir. No engineer stood higher than he with the Wabash system.

Be Quick.

Not a minute should be lost when a child shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. It never fails, and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists

Sheriff's Sale For Taxes.

On Monday, Jan. 9th,

1905, being the first day of the January term of the Lincoln county court, I will, between the hours of 9 o'clock A.

M. and 4 o'clock P. M., in front of the court-house door in Stanford, Kentucky, sell at public outcry to the high-
